1. Heard both sides. The appeal has already been admitted on merits. It appears that in the present case the defence was that the death was suicidal and that deceased was fallen in the well while she was cutting the grass. There is also no clear finding that death was suicidal. The maximum sentence is of 7 years. The applicant was on bail in the trial Court. There was no allegation of abusing of bail. In the circumstances, pending the hearing and final disposal of the appeal, the applicant may be released on the same bail as in the trial Court subject to his furnishing fresh bond. Application stands disposed of.
